

Natural Unnatural Supernatural Gallery Hunt

July 20, 2014

The artwork in these photographs can be found in the Contemporary Art gallery and at Spalding House. Use your creativity to figure out the answers.

PLEASE HELP us preserve our museum and works of art by following these RULES:

1. No touching artwork.
2. No leaning on artwork, cases, or walls.
3. No running.
4. No hitting people or things with the clipboards.
5. No pens, food, or drinks are allowed in the galleries (pencils are okay).
6. No stepping on the platforms in front of works of art.

Breaking any of these rules may result in being asked to leave the museum.

Contemporary Art

Allyn Bromley created Green Piece by cutting up old prints into plant like shapes. She then took these shaped pieces and arranged them into a hanging installation.

In the space below, draw the type of fruit that you think might grow on Allyn Bromley's piece.

Contemporary Art

Masami Teraoka can see mountains from his Windward home and studio. In printing Pali Lookout, he was influenced by Japanese ukiyo-e woodblock prints. Visible in the piece's essential flatness are the soft gradations of colors, the linear outlines of the mountain forms, and the sky shading from light to dark.

What is the name of the mountain range that is found in Masami Teraoka's piece?

Contemporary Art

Robert Lobe is inspired by shapes, materials, and textures found in the woods. He depicts rocks and trees in shimmering hollow forms using heat-treated hammered aluminium. Harmony Ridge, where this sculpture was made, is a public campground in northern New Jersey.

Imagine you went camping and saw an animal near a tree trunk similar to the one that Robert Lobe used in this piece. On the left draw a picture of that animal.

Family Day at Spalding House

Create your own creature! Go to the magnetic wall at the Entry Lanai and create a hybrid creature using four different animal parts. Once you are finished, show a volunteer your completed hybrid creature and have a volunteer initial here _____.
