HONOLULU, HAWAI'I—The exhibition Art in a Time of Chaos offers visitors an opportunity to see remarkable treasures of Six Dynasties period China. Many of the works discovered in recent decades have never before been displayed outside of China. This month the museum's monthly art bash focuses on the exhibition and the period that inspired it with ARTafterDARK: Art in a Time of Chaos.

Visitors can explore Art in a Time of Chaos and get a taste of Six Dynasties culture through an art activity in the gallery. Just outside of the exhibition is DJ Jem, who returns to ARTafterDARK with a mix of Chinese electro beats in Luce Pavilion.

In Central Courtyard guests can enjoy a traditional Chinese dance performance by Phoenix Dance Chamber. Then living history group Khanate of the Golden Horde gives sword demonstrations, after which visitors can pose for photos with their Mongol Empire-era weaponry and armor props. Finally Gee Yung Chinese Martial Arts, Hong Teck Dragon & Lion Dance Sport Association ignites the crowd with their Chinese Lion and Dragon Dance performances.

Free Spirits Mobile Bartenders serves up drinks and specialty cocktails for the evening. The Street Grindz food vendor Eat Honolulu has created a Chinese-accented menu for the evening:
